MAYBE MEDIATION CAN HELP

Mediation helps people in conflict

Mediators...

- Listen to what you have to say.
- Help clear up misunderstandings.
- Help people understand how it feels.
- Help people look at what's fair.
- Help people work out an agreement about the future that everyone is happy with.

Mediators do not take sides or tell people what to do, nor do they make judgements as to who is right or who is wrong.

Why parents & teenagers?

Conflict between parents and teenagers is natural and healthy. It is a normal part of growing up. However sometimes the pressures of modern life turn normal disagreements into battles and the home is the battle zone with the result that it no longer feels safe for anyone.

Mediators can help families repair the damage and plan for the future.

Mediators can help families talk to one another again.
